St. Patrick's Day

Irish national and religious holiday celebrated on March 17, the patron saint of Ireland.

St. Patrick's Day

The most important tradition of the celebration of St. Patrick's Day is wearing green clothes. Green is the national color of Ireland, referring to the grassy landscape of the island and symbolizing the clover traditionally attributed to Saint Patrick. In many cities, the Irish organize fairs and street parades, dominated by greenery.

Shamrock

According to legend, Saint Patrick used it by showing the plant as one stem with three leaves to depict the essence of the Holy Trinity.

Shamrock is worn in the lapel of clothing by Irish people all over the world.

"Patryk's pitcher"

Another tradition related to the celebration of St. Patrick's Day is a tradition of drinking whiskey. Saint Patrick frightened a certain innkeeper who did not pour a full measure of whiskey that monsters would appear in her inn. The scared woman had always filled her glass since then.

March 17

March 17 is the day of the death of St. Patrick's , hence his life and achievements are remembered every year .

HAPPY ST PATRICK'S DAY!
